THE JUGGLER

"Be careful who you want to be, you might forget who you are."

LOGLINE

A brilliant but naive accountant is forced to investigate the dangerous world of a fraudulent mastermind. Intoxicated by the wealth and lifestyle, he turns full circle, no longer wanting to entrap his target, but to become him.

GENRE

A twisted, present-day thriller noir, loaded with suspense and action, and with a shocking sting in its tail. Set in Liverpool and Southport, with scenes in Hong Kong and France.

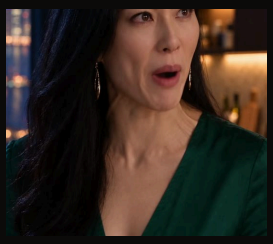

FORMAT

Feature film or three-part series in development. Five AI-made pilot episodes (vertical, about a minute each) are online now.

SYNOPSIS

Anglo-French forensic accountant Alain Bernard needs to escape Hong Kong after a costly failed job and the suicide of his wife, Leia. Jane Gillam, head of a private investigation firm, coerces him into secretly infiltrating the organisation of Liverpool-based financial fraudster John Henderson. John mentors him on how to beat the system, enjoy the rewards, and follow one golden rule. Brutality, betrayal and greed slowly consume Alain.
